

There is no reason to interfere with New Jersey's Do Not Call Law. It is what you should have in place Nationally. Having a telephone does not entitle everyone with a right to call me. Do not challenge New Jersey's consumer protection laws to appease large campaign contributors!